The Galien Foundation Announces Prix Galien Awards Committee
Chaired by Dr. P. Roy Vagelos

The 'Prix Galien' Awards –
Biomedical industry's highest accolades for innovative Research & Development

NEW YORK (April 11, 2012) — The Galien Foundation announced today the membership of its Awards Committee. The Committee is responsible for awarding the prestigious Prix Galien Awards, an annual recognition of innovation in biopharmaceuticals and medical technologies.

Dr. P. Roy Vagelos, Chairman of Regeneron Pharmaceuticals and retired Chairman and Chief Executive Officer at Merck, has been named Chair of the Committee. Joining him is a group of distinguished medical scientists including several Nobel Prize and Lasker Award recipients. The committee comprises: Drs. Richard Axel (Columbia University); Michael Brown (UT Southwestern); Laurie Glimcher (Weill Cornell Medical College); Joseph Goldstein (UT Southwestern); Paul Marks (Memorial Sloan Kettering Institute); Bengt Samuelsson (Karolinska Institute), and Marc Tessier-Lavigne (Rockefeller University).

"As a past honoree and now as Chair of the Prix Galien Awards Committee, I am honored to champion this global tradition of recognizing outstanding biomedical achievement that can improve the human condition through new treatments and technologies that advance health," said Dr. Vagelos. "Scientists come to the table with a passion to improve lives and alleviate suffering. Having seen firsthand their endeavors, we recognize the importance of honoring those achievements."

The annual Prix Galien USA Awards recognize outstanding achievement in improving the human condition through the development of innovative medical treatments and drug therapies. The 2012 Awards Ceremony will be held on October 16th in New York City. Awards will be bestowed for products in the following categories:

- (1) Best Pharmaceutical Agent,
- (2) Best Biotechnology Product,
- (3) Best Medical Technology.

Companies seeking consideration for a Prix Galien Award can submit candidates online at www.prix-galien-usa.com. The ceremony will also include special honors to select individuals who have served to better humanity -- titled the Pro Bono Humanum Award presented by Professor Elie Wiesel, Peace Nobel Laureate, Honorary member of the Committee.
